

Marlene Moskowitz Dodyk is an experienced special educator and administrator, devoted to the field of special education and program development for over 40 years, 39 of which were within the Wayland Public Schools. As the Early Childhood Coordinator/Out of District Coordinator and Director of Student Services and an ardent believer in inclusion for all students, she guided and worked collaboratively with staff, other administrators, and parents to develop high quality programs to meet the needs of students ages preschool through age 22 within the public schools. Early in her career, Dr. Dodyk was on the forefront of developing programs for students with disabilities within other extracurricular and educational programs. Currently, she continues to share her expertise consulting with local school districts and educational programs on special education program evaluation and development, conducting professional development workshops, and mentoring directors of special education. Dr. Dodyk holds a Master's degree in Special Education (M.Ed) from Boston University and a Doctorate in School Leadership and Curriculum and Instruction (Ph.D) from Boston College. Her Bachelor of Arts degree was in special education, elementary education and psychology from Brooklyn College.
